

YOUR GUIDE TO THE ARIZONA CHARITABLE TAX CREDIT

Turn Your Arizona Tax Dollars
Into Second Chances

UNDERSTANDING THE ARIZONA CHARITABLE TAX CREDIT

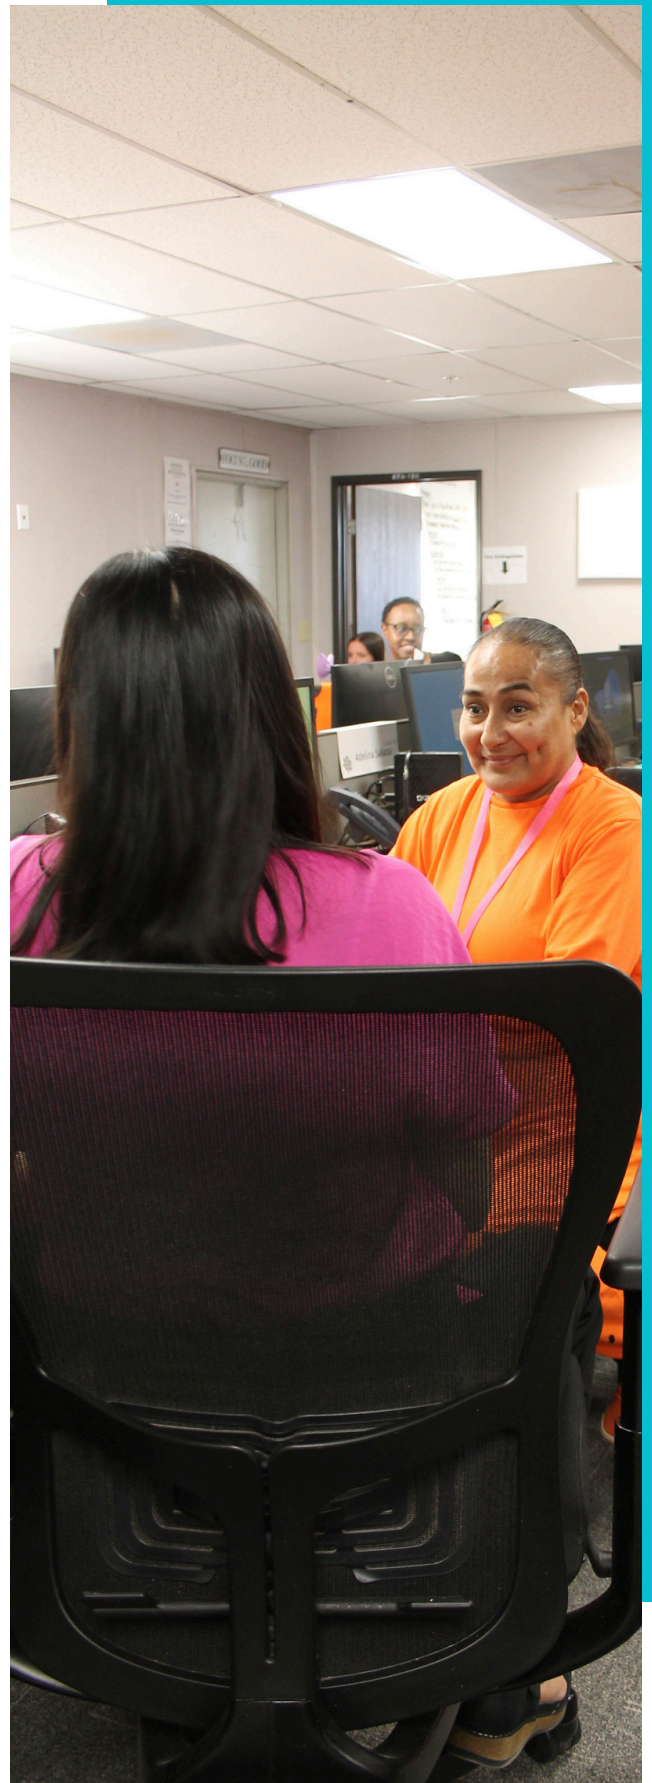

The Arizona Charitable Tax Credit allows Arizona taxpayers to support causes they care about while receiving a dollar-for-dollar credit on their Arizona state income taxes.

When you direct your tax credit to Televerde Foundation, you help women impacted by incarceration build the skills, confidence, and opportunities needed to create brighter futures.

This guide will walk you through everything you need to know about using the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit and the impact your contribution can make.

IN THIS GUIDE

- How the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit Works
- Tax Credit Limits & Important Deadlines
- Frequently Asked Questions
- How Your Tax Credit Creates Second Chances
- Contact Information & Resources

HOW THE ARIZONA CHARITABLE TAX CREDIT WORKS

Supporting women impacted by incarceration through the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit is simple. Follow these four steps to direct your Arizona tax dollars toward workforce development, career readiness, and second chances.

Step 1 Make Your Donation

Make a qualifying contribution to Televerde Foundation, a Qualified Charitable Organization (QCO).

Step 2 Save Your Receipt

Keep documentation of your donation for your records and tax filing purposes.

Step 3 Complete Arizona Form 321

When filing your Arizona state taxes, complete Arizona Form 321 to claim your charitable tax credit.

Step 4 Claim Your Tax Credit

Eligible taxpayers may receive a dollar-for-dollar credit against their Arizona state income tax liability, up to the allowable annual limit.

TELEVERDE FOUNDATION INFORMATION

QCO Code: 22334

QUICK REMINDERS

- Contributions must be made to a Qualified Charitable Organization (QCO)
- Donations must be monetary contributions to qualify
- Keep your donation receipt for tax records
- Consult a qualified tax professional regarding your individual tax situation

TAX CREDIT LIMITS & IMPORTANT DEADLINES

Understanding the annual contribution limits and important filing deadlines can help you maximize the impact of your Arizona Charitable Tax Credit gift.

2026 ARIZONA CHARITABLE TAX CREDIT LIMITS

Up to $506

Maximum Arizona Charitable Tax Credit

Single, Married Filing Separately, or Head of Household

Up to $1,009

Maximum Arizona Charitable Tax Credit

Married Filing Jointly

QUICK TAX CREDIT FACTS

- Dollar-for-Dollar Credit
The Arizona Charitable Tax Credit is a nonrefundable tax credit that may reduce your Arizona state income tax liability dollar for dollar.
- Carryforward Opportunity
Unused Arizona Charitable Tax Credits may generally be carried forward for up to five consecutive tax years.
- No Itemization Required
Eligible taxpayers may claim this credit even if they take the standard deduction on their Arizona tax return.
- Contribution Window for the 2026 Tax Year
January 1, 2026 – April 15, 2027
- Claim with Arizona Form 321
Use Arizona Form 321 when filing your Arizona state taxes to claim your charitable tax credit.

Contributions made during this period may generally be claimed toward the 2026 tax year, subject to Arizona Department of Revenue rules and your individual tax situation.

PLEASE NOTE

Tax laws, filing deadlines, and credit limits may change. Consult the Arizona Department of Revenue or a qualified tax professional regarding your individual tax situation.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Who can claim the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit?	The Arizona Charitable Tax Credit is generally available to individual taxpayers who make qualifying contributions to a Qualified Charitable Organization (QCO) and meet Arizona tax requirements.
Do I have to itemize my deductions?	No. Eligible taxpayers may claim the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit even if they take the standard deduction on their Arizona tax return.
Do cash donations qualify?	Yes. Monetary contributions may qualify for the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit.
Do non-cash or in-kind donations qualify?	No. Non-cash contributions generally do not qualify.
What is a Qualified Charitable Organization (QCO)?	A Qualified Charitable Organization is a nonprofit certified by the State of Arizona to participate in the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit program.
What documentation should I keep?	Keep your donation receipt and supporting documentation for your tax records.
Can I donate more than the tax credit limit?	Yes. You may contribute more than the annual tax credit limit, though only eligible amounts may qualify for the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit.
Where can I learn more?	Visit the Arizona Department of Revenue website or consult a qualified tax professional.

Did You Know?

You may claim the Arizona Charitable Tax Credit even if you take the standard deduction on your Arizona tax return.

YOUR TAX CREDIT. HER FUTURE.

Your Arizona Charitable Tax Credit helps create opportunities for women impacted by incarceration through workforce development, career readiness, and pathways to employment.

CREATE YOUR IMPACT TODAY

Televerde Foundation
QCO Code: 22334

Donate Now →
Phone: 480-771-6670

SCAN TO DONATE

HOW YOUR TAX CREDIT CREATES IMPACT

- Workforce Development
Career-focused training designed to prepare women for successful reentry and long-term employment.
- Professional Certifications
Industry-recognized credentials that help women build skills employers value.
- Career Readiness
Professional communication, interviewing, and workplace skills that build confidence and opportunity.
- Employment Opportunities
Connections to employers committed to fair chance hiring.
- Stronger Futures
Opportunities for women to build stable futures, strengthen their families, and contribute to their communities

THANK YOU

Thank you for investing in second chances and helping create opportunities for women working to build brighter futures.

Disclaimer

This guide is provided for informational purposes only and should not be considered tax, legal, or financial advice. Tax laws, filing deadlines, and credit limits may change. Please consult a qualified tax professional regarding your individual tax situation and eligibility for Arizona tax credits.